THE CHOLERA.

MARSEILLES, July 16.—The cholera epidemic, the first starting in violence, is on the increase, and there is no exception to the general rule that the city of all the inhabitants who can flee to do so. Twenty-five deaths occurred last night, and a number of new cases were reported at the hospitals today. That restrictions to such movement will increase, seeking the investigation of any more responsibility.

Marseilles steadily deaths from cholera have today.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, July 16.—Ex-President Von Bismarck has received from the Leipzig at Hamburg the following telegram: "The physicians at Vienna to consequent." There are four to seventeen cases daily from cholera, chiefly at Marseilles and Toulon. The deaths given Friday, seventeen, were seven, seventy-three, seventy-three, twenty-three, and last night, three deaths in seven hours. No congestion in the force is reported.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, July 16.—The Reichsrath has adjourned, but will meet by appointment to consider certain measures. Sometimes the Minister of Religion has instructed the various clerical assistants to take an especial position against the encroachments of Socialism and other agencies, the consolidation of Socialism very extensive. He also calls for a modification of European military organization to establish permanent measures.

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 16.—The press here, owing to the election, is occupying itself almost entirely with politics and the war in Africa. Some people are saying that the Chamber of Deputies will not last much longer, basing the belief on a hint dropped by Premier Meline in a late speech.

The Figaro says: "The Minister of Finance has received from the Bank of France and China has advanced to be to arrange the 100 the coming autumn a loan of 400,000,000 francs, which will be issued at 4 per cent. It may be remembered that the Chinese Minister, Li Hung Chang, has visited the Bank of France and China, and that the Chinese loan is the result of his visit."

THE CITY.

IN GENERAL.

Owing to lack of a quorum there was no meeting of the Board of Education last night.

Cases of scarlet fever were reported yesterday at No. 242 Twenty-sixth street and No. 614 South Clark street.

Paul Fritz, a middle-aged German, married, and living at No. 49 Seminary street, attempted suicide by taking poison. His condition was represented to him to prevent the execution of the potion, and he will recover.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Sergeant Ogleton (Tribune Building), was as follows: 7 a. m., 67° above zero; 9 a. m., 67°; 12 m., 67°; 3 p. m., 67°; 6 p. m., 67°; 9 p. m., 67°; 12 p. m., 67°. Barometer, 7 a. m., 30.20; 7 p. m., 30.20.

Patrick Farrell entered the house of Mrs. Mary Ann Ryan, No. 150 La Salle street, by means of false keys and was leaving against consent of Mrs. Ryan, on account of the arrest of Clinton and Baldwin yesterday with the goods under his arm and the keys in his pocket. Justice White will try him to-day.

The case of Paul Dudzil, Andrew Sabella, and William Lang, who were arrested several days ago, with a bundle of counterfeit silver certificates supposing the sum of $1,000, was continued by Justice Bonfield yesterday. Assistant States-attorney Ryan is the counsel of Capt. Hall and the defendants' attorney for the defendants.

John H. McDonald, a subcontractor at No. 1001 Fourth avenue, contracted to a carpenter between the sixteen and four feet, a balance to a carpenter to the laborer at that rate, but paid only the latter rate. The latter made a difficulty concerning compensation, of the latter. Both men went to the County Hospital, Mr. McDonald was arrested.

The police are searching for Bert Gage Warden, 14 years old, who lived at No. 482 West Madison street. He has been missing since Wednesday. They are sure he was not the Lake Front, but the friends have given over that hypothesis. He left his home with but 5 cents in his pocket. Any information concerning the boy's whereabouts will be thankfully received by his parents.

A telegram from Milwaukee published in THE TRIBUNE of July 7 did an injustice to Mr. Coggeshall, business manager of the Soldiers' Relief quarter centenary, inasmuch as it implied that he had disagreement with the Board of Managers. The truth is that the members of the commemorative spirit is already past for a repetition, and Mr. Coggeshall, for reasons satisfactory to himself, and to the Board, have now severed their connection with the Board.

Daniel Gavitan, who lived at No. 1011 Emerson street, was arrested Wednesday night on complaint of his wife. Both in court yesterday morning to-day. The case was continued by Justice Ham, but on the promise of his wife to support him he was placed in a cell until he should have recovered. He will have to be here, paying $10 fine for which he has to work out during the afternoon. He was an habitual drunkard.

Charles Terry and John C. Santiago arrived in the city during the morning from St. Louis. The latter expected to get a situation in a railroad office. During the afternoon in consequence of not having such, and their capital for a week towards the close, at Scott Town street and the Chicago Lumber Company's large dock. Terry, who is the Commercial National Bank Building, had charge of the property, and when the friends of the deceased, for the sake of a telegram from Cairo. Terry was born in the County Hospital.

Paul Parker, 10 years old, is under arrest for stealing $100 worth of goods from Koch & Milligan on the orders to which it is alleged he forged the signature of J. J. Gottlieb & Co., Pulaski street dealers in cigar-boxes. Parker was arrested by Detective Turney and Officer Hanley a few days ago, and after spending a few days in the Harrison street station, he had a search in his pocket. He confessed, and said he had to deliver the goods, he confessed, and said he had to deliver the goods, he confessed, and said he had to deliver the goods, he

THE CAMPAIGN WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

A Great Success—$15,000 Subscriptions Secured in Two Weeks—The Good Work Will Keep On—It Counts Till after Election.

The success of THE CAMPAIGN WEEKLY TRIBUNE is now beyond our most sanguine expectations. In less than two weeks we have secured subscriptions for over 15,000 copies of the campaign edition. The subscriptions average 1,000 daily. A few weekend clubs are given below:

[Table of subscription clubs]

It is evident that the people of the West are enthusiastically in favor of the election of Blaine and Logan and desire to send a message that is unmistaking and emphatic to the managers of the Republican candidates. THE TRIBUNE will spare no pains to make this CAMPAIGN WEEKLY a useful instrument in the hands of true republicans to promote the success of the Republican candidates.

Clearings for the week ended yesterday were:

New York exchanges this week show an increase over the corresponding week last year of [illegible] per cent.

Chicago, 7% per cent.
Boston, 4 per cent.
Philadelphia, 10% per cent.
Cincinnati, 10% per cent.
San Francisco, 20 per cent.
New Orleans, 20 per cent.

The money market showed an easier tone at a few points yesterday. There was a good demand, and there were renewed rates to the same per centum of 4 to 4½ per cent per annum and loans of 4 per cent were reported. Private bankers quote loans as to accommodate account during this emergency, and the same rates are offering in the open market. Foreign exchange was dull during most of the session, and the supply of bills was large. A few drafts were offering. The posted rates for bankers' sterling were left for days were left for demand, the actual rates being 4.87½ and 4.89. Commercial drafts were 4.87 at 4.87½. There were reports from Londoners' securities are reported, and the rates over the counter were easier, as the sales were at 4.87½ and 4.89. There were reports from Londoners' securities are reported, and the rates over the counter were easier, as the sales were at 4.87½ and 4.89. There were reports from Londoners' securities are reported, and the rates over the counter were easier, as the sales were at 4.87½ and 4.89.

The New York Stock Market was dull, the price turning up very little above. The first was on the whole strong, though there was no marked gain. Investments and specialty prices were also the most active. Prices were about the same as [illegible]. Prices in unit sold to be a gain to Texas Pacific, of which about [illegible] Pacific people are also members, and Mobile & Ohio, of which Baltimore & Ohio people are interested. There was also [illegible] of New York Central on the report that [illegible] have sold their shares in England for cash. Southern investments were an increase of [illegible] on Central Pacific, a decrease of [illegible] per cent, and [illegible] per cent on Wednesday. The earnings of the Southern Road for the week ended [illegible] against $60,000 the corresponding week of last year. Union Pacific earned $4,000, against $60,000 the corresponding week of last year. The first subsequent shows a decrease of $60,000 for the first week, against $2,000,000 for eight months. The Grand Trunk Road is showing fairly against the reductions in the percentage of the week. The stock market is a good deal of a puzzle to the operators just now. You generally something to bear up that there is this bank to protect prices. According to the banks of the big [illegible] and some of the directors want to [illegible] Wall street position much [illegible].
